“DEI gives everyone the access and opportunity they need, and helps rectify injustices.”

Wayne Lester
U-M student

2018 DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION SUMMIT

OCTOBER 8
9–10:30 am | POWER CENTER
Community Assembly & Discussion
Remarks by President Mark S. Schlissel and other senior leaders
Featuring Diane Guerrero. Moderated by Leonard Pitts, Jr.
Diane Guerrero is an award-winning actress, social activist and the author of In the Country We Love. She currently stars in the Emmy- and Golden Globe nominated series Orange is the New Black. Leonard Pitts, Jr. is an award-winning syndicated columnist who writes about diversity and current affairs.

2–3:30 pm | PALMER COMMONS, FORUM HALL
Social Transformation through Public Engagement
Leaders from different sectors discuss partnerships with higher education to inform and implement social change. President Mark S. Schlissel will share remarks on the intersection between two Presidential initiatives: Public Engagement & Impact and Diversity, Equity & Inclusion.

3:30–5 pm | GRADUATE HOTEL, TERRACE BALLROOM
Promoting Equity and Inclusion: Eliminating Sexual Misconduct at U-M
Engage with university leaders in a panel discussion on fulfilling our shared responsibility to ensure a safe, equitable and respectful community.

OCTOBER 10
6:30–9 pm | WEISER HALL, 10TH FLOOR
Student Life Design Thinking Event for Campus Climate Initiatives
A student-driven design thinking session for campus climate initiatives.

OCTOBER 12
3–5 pm | TOWSLEY CENTER – DOW AUDITORIUM (MEDICAL CAMPUS)
A VOICES of the Staff Film Screening and Conversation – Me, The “Other”
Screening of Me, The “Other,” a documentary about a diverse group of students in Southeast Michigan and their stories of “otherness.” A conversation with cast, crew and a panel discussion will follow the film screening. *Additional screenings planned for the academic campus.

Plus more unit-sponsored and central events October 8–12. diversity.umich.edu/summit-events #UMichDEI @UMichDiversity
“It’s truly valuing, understanding and appreciating the differences of others while also advocating for the rights of specific populations.”

Andarius R. Taylor
U-M staff

2018 DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION SUMMIT

OCTOBER 8
9–10:30 am | POWER CENTER
Community Assembly & Discussion
REMARKS BY PRESIDENT MARK S. SCHLISSEL AND OTHER SENIOR LEADERS
Featuring Diane Guerrero. Moderated by Leonard Pitts, Jr.
Diane Guerrero is an award-winning actress, social activist and the author of In the Country We Love. She currently stars in the Emmy-and Golden Globe nominated series Orange Is the New Black. Leonard Pitts, Jr. is an award-winning syndicated columnist who writes about diversity and current affairs.

2–3:30 pm | PALMER COMMONS, FORUM HALL
Social Transformation through Public Engagement
Leaders from different sectors discuss partnerships with higher education to inform and implement social change. President Mark S. Schlissel will share remarks on the intersection between two Presidential initiatives: Public Engagement & Impact and Diversity, Equity & Inclusion.

3:30–5 pm | GRADUATE HOTEL, TERRACE BALLROOM
Promoting Equity and Inclusion: Eliminating Sexual Misconduct at U-M
Engage with university leaders in a panel discussion on fulfilling our shared responsibility to ensure a safe, equitable and respectful community.

OCTOBER 10
6:30–9 pm | WEISER HALL, 10TH FLOOR
Student Life Design Thinking Event for Campus Climate Initiatives
A student-driven design thinking session for campus climate initiatives.

OCTOBER 12
3–5 pm | TOWSLEY CENTER – DOW AUDITORIUM (MEDICAL CAMPUS)
A VOICES of the Staff Film Screening and Conversation – Me, The “Other”
Screening of Me, The “Other,” a documentary about a diverse group of students in Southeast Michigan and their stories of “otherness.” A conversation with cast, crew and a panel discussion will follow the film screening. Additional screenings planned for the academic campus.

Plus more unit-sponsored and central events October 8–12. diversity.umich.edu/summit-events #UMichDEI @UMichDiversity
“Diversity, equity and inclusion means recognizing and valuing identity differences and unique life experiences.”

Tyler Neiss
U-M student

2018 DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION SUMMIT

OCTOBER 8

9–10:30 am | POWER CENTER
Community Assembly & Discussion
Remarks by President Mark S. Schlissel and other senior leaders
Featuring Diane Guerrero. Moderated by Leonard Pitts, Jr.
Diane Guerrero is an award-winning actress, social activist and the author of In the Country We Love. She currently stars in the Emmy- and Golden Globe nominated series Orange Is the New Black. Leonard Pitts, Jr. is an award-winning syndicated columnist who writes about diversity and current affairs.

2–3:30 pm | PALMER COMMONS, FORUM HALL
Social Transformation through Public Engagement
Leaders from different sectors discuss partnerships with higher education to inform and implement social change. President Mark S. Schlissel will share remarks on the intersection between two Presidential initiatives: Public Engagement & Impact and Diversity, Equity & Inclusion.

3:30–5 pm | GRADUATE HOTEL, TERRACE BALLROOM
Promoting Equity and Inclusion: Eliminating Sexual Misconduct at U-M
Engage with university leaders in a panel discussion on fulfilling our shared responsibility to ensure a safe, equitable and respectful community.

OCTOBER 10

6:30–9 pm | WEISER HALL, 10TH FLOOR
Student Life Design Thinking Event for Campus Climate Initiatives
A student-driven design thinking session for campus climate initiatives.

OCTOBER 12

3–5 pm | TOWSLEY CENTER – DOW AUDITORIUM (MEDICAL CAMPUS)
A VOICES of the Staff Film Screening and Conversation – Me, The “Other”
Screening of Me, The “Other,” a documentary about a diverse group of students in Southeast Michigan and their stories of “otherness.” A conversation with cast, crew and a panel discussion will follow the film screening. Additional screenings planned for the academic campus.

Plus more unit-sponsored and central events October 8–12. diversity.umich.edu/summit-events #UMichDEI @UMichDiversity
"It is critical that the university, in its commitment to serve society, is creating the spaces to engage, reflect and act."

Maria Arquero de Alarcón
U-M faculty

2018 DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION SUMMIT

OCTOBER 8
9–10:30 am | POWER CENTER
Community Assembly & Discussion
Remarks by President Mark S. Schlissel and other senior leaders
Featuring Diane Guerrero. Moderated by Leonard Pitts, Jr.
Diane Guerrero is an award-winning actress, social activist and the author of In the Country We Love. She currently stars in the Emmy-and Golden Globe nominated series Orange is the New Black. Leonard Pitts, Jr. is an award-winning syndicated columnist who writes about diversity and current affairs.

2–3:30 pm | PALMER COMMONS, FORUM HALL
Social Transformation through Public Engagement
Leaders from different sectors discuss partnerships with higher education to inform and implement social change. President Mark S. Schlissel will share remarks on the intersection between two Presidential initiatives: Public Engagement & Impact and Diversity, Equity & Inclusion.

3:30–5 pm | GRADUATE HOTEL, TERRACE BALLROOM
Promoting Equity and Inclusion: Eliminating Sexual Misconduct at U-M
Engage with university leaders in a panel discussion on fulfilling our shared responsibility to ensure a safe, equitable and respectful community.

OCTOBER 10
6:30–9 pm | WEISER HALL, 10TH FLOOR
Student Life Design Thinking Event for Campus Climate Initiatives
A student-driven design thinking session for campus climate initiatives.

OCTOBER 12
3–5 pm | TOWSLEY CENTER – DOW AUDITORIUM (MEDICAL CAMPUS)
A VOICES of the Staff Film Screening and Conversation – Me, The “Other”
Screening of Me, The “Other,” a documentary about a diverse group of students in Southeast Michigan and their stories of “otherness.” A conversation with cast, crew and a panel discussion will follow the film screening. Additional screenings planned for the academic campus.

Plus more unit-sponsored and central events October 8–12.
diversity.umich.edu/summit-events #UMichDEI @UMichDiversity
Sarah Hassle
U-M student

"Diversity, equity, and inclusion means progress. It's about embracing and welcoming the uniqueness and experiences of others."

---

2018 DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION SUMMIT

OCTOBER 8

9–10:30 am | POWER CENTER
Community Assembly & Discussion
REMARKS BY PRESIDENT MARK S. SCHLISSEL AND OTHER SENIOR LEADERS
Featuring Diane Guerrero. Moderated by Leonard Pitts, Jr.
Diane Guerrero is an award-winning actress, social activist and the author of In the Country We Love. She currently stars in the Emmy- and Golden Globe nominated series Orange Is the New Black. Leonard Pitts, Jr. is an award-winning syndicated columnist who writes about diversity and current affairs.

2–3:30 pm | PALMER COMMONS, FORUM HALL
Social Transformation through Public Engagement
Leaders from different sectors discuss partnerships with higher education to inform and implement social change. President Mark S. Schlissel will share remarks on the intersection between two Presidential initiatives: Public Engagement & Impact and Diversity, Equity & Inclusion.

3:30–5 pm | GRADUATE HOTEL, TERRACE BALLROOM
Promoting Equity and Inclusion: Eliminating Sexual Misconduct at U-M
Engage with university leaders in a panel discussion on fulfilling our shared responsibility to ensure a safe, equitable and respectful community.

OCTOBER 10

6:30–9 pm | WEISER HALL, 10TH FLOOR
Student Life Design Thinking Event for Campus Climate Initiatives
A student-driven design thinking session for campus climate initiatives.

OCTOBER 12

3–5 pm | TOWSELEY CENTER – DOW AUDITORIUM (MEDICAL CAMPUS)
A VOICES of the Staff Film Screening and Conversation – Me, The ‘Other’
Screening of Me, The ‘Other’, a documentary about a diverse group of students in Southeast Michigan and their stories of “otherness.” A conversation with cast, crew and a panel discussion will follow the film screening. Additional screenings planned for the academic campus.

Plus more unit-sponsored and central events October 8–12. diversity.umich.edu/summit-events #UMichDEI @UMichDiversity
Community Assembly & Discussion

OCTOBER 8
9–10:30 am | POWER CENTER

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT MARK S. SCHLISSEL AND OTHER SENIOR LEADERS

Featuring Diane Guerrero. Moderated by Leonard Pitts, Jr.

Diane Guerrero is an award-winning actress, social activist and the author of In the Country We Love. She currently stars in the Emmy- and Golden Globe-nominated series Orange Is the New Black. Leonard Pitts, Jr. is an award-winning, syndicated columnist who writes about diversity and current affairs.

Please note that this event is not ticketed. Seating will be on a first-come first-served basis.

PLUS MORE UNIT-SPONSORED AND CENTRAL EVENTS THE WEEK OF OCTOBER 8–12. diversity.umich.edu/summit-events

#UMichDEI @UMichDiversity