

Harmonies: A Journey of Traditional Asian Artforms

Time: October 22 7-9 pm, 2023

Location: Michigan League Ballroom

Purpose: This special performance was sponsored by the school's DEI Office and was one of the events of the October DEI Summit. We aimed to embody the spirit of diversity, equality, and inclusion, allowing people from all over the world to explore Asian traditional culture and experience the power of music and art.

Highlight:

- Chinese Instrumental Ensemble pieces, Dance of Yao
- Guqin and Xiao, Yang Guan
- After Party Interaction

Attendee Feedback:

Xiaodong Wei – Lecturer II in the Residential College:

It's not a easy work to bring along such an performance like this, the music, the dressups. The atmosphere and pieces shows your preparation and effort!

An audience with glasses:

It's a brand new experience to watch both solo pieces and performance from a group og musicians. I'm now very curious about the relation and difference between Chinese music and Western music system.

Contact: Instagram: qingyun.um

TikTok: um_qingyun

YouTube: 密大清韵民乐社Qingyun Chinese Instrumental Ensemble

Bilibili: 密大清韵民乐社

小红书: UM清韵民乐社

邮箱: um.qingyun.eboard@gmail.com